were of St. Paul today.
Wolf Brothers bought 10,000 Union Pacific. J. J. Manning bid 146½ for Louis-ville and Nashville. After the reaction toward the end of the first hour the supply of stocks on brokers' books seemed to be exhausted, while the buying became more urgent.

The market more than held its own in the hour before noon. Some good selling was met in Union Pacific, which outweighed the influence of two or three large buying orders. The feature was the resumption of pool speculation by the Guggenheim party. National Lead gained 3 per cent; Smelting 2 per cent. The tone of the entire market was cheerful.

CITIZENS TO DISCUSS ABOLITION OF TRANSFERS

The Brookland and the Langdon Citizens' associations meet tonight to discuss the coming abolition of trans-fers between the City and Suburban railroad and the lines of the Washington Railway and Electric Company as recently ordered by the Supreme Court the District in a decision by Justice Anderson.

Representatives from a number of citizens' associations will attend the Brookland meeting and some plan of action opposing the court's ruling will be determined upon.

Manager La Motte, in extending the invitations to the newsboys, is giving a genuine pleasure to three hundred Washington youngsters, many of whom cannot afford the luxury of seeing a real theatrical performance.

Word was sent to the little fellows this morning that the Lafayette Theater would be glad to have them as guests for tomorrow evening, and it is safe to assume that it will be a happy lot of boys who will be crying "Washington Times" this evening.

Ever since word came to them the boys have been discussing the expected treat, and little knots or newsboys have been gathered about, one telling the other what the show's about.

The boys will be admitted to the house upon presentation of a card especially prepared for them, and in playing host to the little fellows Mr. La Motte will have the satisfaction of knowing that three hundred hearts are the happier for his thoughtfulness.
